

Brandon Vance holds a B.M. and M.M. in Violin Performance from the Cleveland Institute of Music, having studied with Mr. Paul Kantor as well as the Cavani Quartet. He has won awards both at home and abroad, earning the title of U.S. Scottish National Fiddle Champion two times, as well as having received first place in the Open Fiddle Competition at the 2017 Royal National Mòd, held in Fort William, Scotland. Vance has performed and taught at the University of Limerick's Irish World Academy and University of Oregon. He has also composed and performed his original composition "Gael Storm" for Fiddle and Orchestra with the Cleveland Pops Orchestra at Severance Hall, and has had the honor of performing his own "Kantor Caprice" with the Skyros Quartet.